Data Protection Policy

We apply our core values of integrity, care and respect to the way we process data. Curo takes care to ensure data is accurate, we respect that much of the data we handle is confidential, and our integrity ensures we comply with all data legislation.

The objectives of our Data Protection Policy are:

- To coordinate and promote confidence in our information security and data handling procedures;
- To comply with the General Data Protection Regulation 2016 (GDPR) as well as other relevant legislation; and
- To provide a benchmark for our staff on information security, confidentiality and data protection issues.

This policy includes data protection and data privacy. Curo Services is a Data Controller as defined by the GDPR. Our Chief Technology Officer (CTO) is Annie Andrews, who will answer any queries about our policy (email: annie.andrews@curoservices.com)
